Hello friends across the Circuit!

Further to my article last month on the Oneprogramme, which employs young people to “take a year on” whilst contributing to a project in the Methodist Church, I now have a date of Thursday 13 December for Melody Clarke who is part of the North West and Mann Learning and Development Team, to come and tell us more about the Oneprogramme and who can help with applications. Please be in touch with me if you would like to come to this session which will be at North Street, Crewe.

Thank-you – Heather

And more information

I have recently I met with Diane Goodier from Action for Children, and she would like it to be known that she is available to come into our Churches and lead fellowship groups and/or have input into Services to celebrate the 150th Anniversary year of Action for Children - 2019. Please contact me in the first instance –

Thankyou –

The Hassall Road Book Emporium which raises money for Englesea Brook Primitive Methodist Museum goes from strength to strength.

It has over 50,000 books on all subjects including very strong Theology and Worship sections.

It is open on Fridays and Saturdays from 10am – 2pm.

Barnabus – a Charity that brings hope to the homeless and vulnerable have launched a Christmas appeal – please see the poster on our website for further information

They are also hosting a fundraising event on Sunday evening, 23rd December at 8pm at the George & Dragon, Middlewich Road, Holmes Chapel –

Invite your friends and join them for a spectacular Band Night – Premier Crew, a local band will be entertaining with live set of favourites from the 60s and Christmas hits.

Funds raised on the night will provide support for the life saving work of Banrabus - a Christian Homeless Charity – see Poster on website

Action for Children are asking for Secret Santas for vulnerable children this Christmas

See how becoming a Secret Santa will make a difference to children like Lily this Christmas in the lovely animated film which can be found on:
