

So, what's the story?

This is Revd Dr Barbara Glasson, the President designate of the Methodist Conference, who is calling into the Englesea Brook Chapel and Museum as she walks to conference in Birmingham from her home in Bradford, West Yorkshire.

Come along and hear from Barbara about the theme for her Presidential year 'So, what's the story?' – and why on earth she's walking the 133 miles to Conference!

She's interested in meeting you and hearing your story too...
